

Sublimely Organized Studio

In 30 days we will transform your studio into a more functional, creative space so you can get back to making the art you live-love to make!

This is the time to explore new systems and create your own way of doing things that will bring you into better alignment with your creative process.

There is a naturally occurring cycle of order and disorder in the creative process. Sometimes that cycle is interrupted or can come to an abrupt halt due to health, moving, stress or overwhelm. In order to invite that healthy flow back into your art making process it's can be helpful to get support and advice from someone who can see things from a different perspective.

This Virtual Package Includes

- 4 weeks of individualized support
- Life time access to the Creatively Organized Spaces Facebook Community
- A customized step by step action plan
- DIY "homework assignments" to keep you on track
- 30 min weekly live accountability calls
- Creative Resource Guide (storage, supplies etc)
- Creative strategies and organizing tips

$540/4 Weeks-Monday-Friday (paid in full or two payments of $275)

Is this DIY package right for you?

Are you fed up with you creative chaos?

Do you want to focus more energy on art-making?

Are you committed to changing your systems to see different results?

Can you commit 4 hrs a week to creating more healthy organized systems and mindset?

Great! It sounds like you are self motivated and ready to take action and invest in yourself as a successful creative artist!

Email me today and let's get started! Info@hkpowerstudio.com